LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

- The Library's 2020-2021 Budget was passed and will still include the Avenal and Lemoore renovations.
- We have had a few customer complaints in regards to customer service. Natalie is handling them accordingly with the help from policies and County Counsel.
- The virtual 2020 Summer Reading Program received a great response including many online views of the performers. A handout reflecting sign up numbers was emailed to the LAB members.
- Book drops and curbside services will be opening soon. Natalie will be speaking with the CAO about these services and working on the publicity for reopening. We have received supplies and siphoned them out to outlying branches so as to be prepared for these services once they have started. Draft handouts were emailed to the members.
- The Library Advisory Board Bylaws from 1999 were emailed to the members. There was a focus on Bylaw #8 with regards to an LAB members absence.
